1. CALL TO ORDER / INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS
   Meeting called to order by Nancy Wallace.

2. PUBLIC COMMENT – No public comment.

3. AGENDA REVIEW – A couple of announcements added to Information items will be reflected in minutes.

4. REVIEW AND APPROVAL OF LAST MEETING MINUTES
   Motion by Paul Alabeck and second by Carl Sorrentino to approve the March 26, 2015 meeting minutes. Motion carried unanimously.

5. INFORMATION & ANNOUNCEMENTS
   a. The NoCo Nature Festival is collaborating to plan a joint event with the Harvest Festival. The event will be called Nature's Harvest Fest and will be on Saturday, September 12 at the Gardens on Spring Creek in Fort Collins. This is a great way to reach a new audience and maximize efforts.
   b. Loveland Open Lands 2014 Annual Report was provided to the Board.
   c. DNR Grant Successes:
      i. Larimer County received a $350,000 State Trails grant for the Colorado Front Range Trail, Loveland to Fort Collins Segment. This 2.2-mile concrete trail will connect existing paved trails in Fort Collins and Loveland. The conceptual estimate for this trail is $1,021,701 and Larimer County has received $800,000 in grants for construction. Construction is planned in 2016.
      ii. A GOCO Paths to Parks application was submitted by Larimer County, Loveland and Fort Collins for the Long View Corridor Trail. The $999,550 request will match the $1 million CDOT grant received earlier this year, to build this 4.4-mile concrete trail and new trailhead at Sunset Vista Natural Area. Grant awards will be made in June. Construction is planned in 2016 and 2017 if the grant is awarded.

iii. Larimer County received a $73,000 Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) to develop a preliminary conceptual design for the Poudre through River Bluffs Open Space. This reach of the Poudre is in poor condition due to man-made levees and disconnection to the floodplain. The conceptual design will highlight physical improvements to the channel that will improve river function and will be compatible with surrounding land uses.

Kerri said Zac and Jeffrey have been really going after it. All these grant successes equate to $6.75 dollars for every dollar we submit. Kudos to them!

d. Construction of the Poudre River Trail, Timnath's Gateway Park to Stonefly Drive segment is underway. Concrete has been poured on the majority of this 0.75-mile segment and the project should be wrapped up later this summer.

e. The Natural Resources Department is working with Greeley to transfer a $150,000 Colorado Water Conservation Board (CWCB) award to Larimer County for bank repairs at Lions Open Space. The CWCB award, in conjunction with FEMA funds, will be used to repair the banks caused by the September 2013 flood and 2014 spring runoff. Meegan said the restoration work will begin this fall.

f. We have just offered the position of Community Relations & Communications Specialist, but have not received a definite answer back yet. By next month we may have someone for the Board to meet.

g. Open Lands Master Plan adoption – Board of County Commissioner Worksession is in a couple of weeks, where they will make a recommendation to the Planning Commission to adopt the plan. The Planning Commission meets on May 20.

h. Report from the Open Space Operations Managers

   Travis reported sadly that they found a dead bald eagle out by River Bluffs. They are hoping it is not one of the pairs with chicks. Red Mountain Open Space opened on March 1 and has been quite busy.

   Travis shared with the Board that he asked his staff to put some numbers to what happens at the trailheads regarding over-capacity. At Horsetooth Mountain – on Saturday & Sundays they are turning around 600 vehicles each day. On Easter Sunday they turned away 1000 vehicles. The parking lot capacity is 84. Gerry asked if the parking lot capacity is the trail capacity. It would be helpful to know if it is a parking lot issue or “resource” capacity. Meegan explained that there are trails that will always be the most popular (Horsetooth Rock, Horsetooth Falls, Keyhole at DBBOS, etc.) because they lead to iconic landmarks so the capacity on those trails can dictate the capacity of the area.

i. Sales Tax Report from prior month – since 2013-2014, sales tax revenue up by 12.5 %!!

j. Mary announced the Geo-Fest this Saturday, April 25, 2015, a community-wide celebration of our planet, housed in the Estes Park Event Center & Pavillon at 1125 Rooftop Way… lots of activities for kids.

k. Estes Park has been named the #1 best small town in America to visit… WHY? Wilderness-themed art exhibits, classes, films and concerts celebrates the park’s highlights—which include some of the tallest mountains in the continental United States and more than 300 miles of hiking trails.

6. PRESENTATIONS

   a. Small Grants for Community Partnering (SGCP) Awards – Board of County Commissioners

   b. Commissioners Donnelly and Johnson presented award checks to the 10 Small Grant for Community Partnering awardees. Each awardee spoke briefly about their project and were eager to get started if they hadn’t already!

c. Kerri presented to the Board on Division of Real Estate (DRE) Certification changes and conservation tax credit updates. The presentation will be included with meeting minutes.

Things have slowed down so much the DRE is thinking of increasing fees again. They did not announce their 2015 fees until December 31, 2014. The Board discussed the changes occurring. DRE has also changed some processes, such as reviewing the appraisals before the tax credit can go through. The promise of this not bottlenecking the system is not real. Easements that were turned in back in December are still waiting with the DRE.

Mary Banken said having a landowner pay for something such as an appraisal ($10,000 and higher depending on the acreage) with no promise of a result is too scary for the landowner.

Mary asked if this board would consider increasing the fund to help with transaction costs for local land trusts. With the new fees, donating $5000 toward projects does not have the impact it once did. Appraisals were 10-20,000 in the past and will certainly be going up.

7. DISCUSSION & UPDATES

a. Zac presented an update on the Big Thompson Canyon Recreation and Conservation Assessment, showing who the partners are, the evaluation criteria, public priorities and themes and property categories. The presentation will be filed with the meeting minutes. The Board also received a first draft of Chapters 1-3 of the assessment plan.

Paul Alaback provided several comments on the first draft. The Project Vision states “[…] mitigate flooding, which is not true. He thinks they are actually wanting to say “mitigate the impacts of flooding.” Paul wants to see some clarification of that vision. The best way to kill a river is to prevent flooding.

He went on to say he knows it is complicated to present this stuff, but there are very different sections of the Big Thompson River. He suggests writing the document to match the channel of the river. There are different ecosystems in the river so consider what is the natural expectation of that channel. Divide the river into these functional sections… to explain to the people better. Be especially careful with the Executive Summary, which will likely be the only thing the majority will read.

Last point… there is a figure that shows the slope, trees, etc. depicted as the riparian section, right next to cliffs… not realistic. Could do a better job of marrying information.

Zac thanked Paul for well thought-out feedback and said he would share it with the team.

Zac - There is approximately $56 million of Natural Resources Conservation Service (NRCS) funding through the Emergency Watershed Protection program that has been allocated for several counties in the state, including Larimer County, to assist with flood recovery. The funding requires a sponsor that has not been announced yet. Staff will continue to monitor the program and evaluate its potential for projects in the county.

8. EXECUTIVE SESSION:

Motion by Carl Sorrentino that the Board move into Executive Session, pursuant to C.R.S. (24-6-402(4)(a) for discussion of the purchase, acquisition, lease, transfer or sale of any real or personal property interest. Second by Paul Alaback. Motion carried unanimously.

9. ADJOURN
The 5th annual Ranger Excellence School took place 5/11-15th at the Ranch. Well attended and well received! Lots of work put in by all the full time Rangers and Managers in order to pull it off.

Staff has been very busy trying to hire and train up a LOT of new staff. Between the rangers and maintenance staff, only 2 returning employees this season.

Chris attended two seminars- Women in Law Enforcement and the Rocky Mountain Tactical Association presentation from an officer who survived being shot 15 times during an active shooter encounter.

Pinewood construction continues. Weather is really getting the better of us, causing numerous delays in finishing the heavy construction contracts. We are still working on some erosion mitigation with another subcontractor. Huge thank you to Casey for helping coordinate that portion of the project. We will be opening for the Memorial Day weekend, but construction will be continuing in the weeks following.

Weather is also wreaking havoc at Hermit Park. The drainage plans to alleviate the flooding at the pavilion are on hold until drier weather arrives. We will most likely need to delay the final touches on the project until the fall in order to open it to the public for the busy recreation season. Springs are popping up everywhere- some we are well versed in dealing with but with all the moisture this season, we have new ones cropping up as well. We had to re-route visitors into the back two campgrounds (Granite Gulch and Kruger) due to the springs coming up in the middle of the road. Springs are also causing some soggy sites in Hermit’s Hollow.

Chris is working with other NR staff on developing a general RFP specifically for our departmental use for architectural and construction design/build oversight. Historically we have piggy backed on the Engineering Dept contractors. We were not allowed to do this for the alternate FEMA project regarding the trails and trailheads for the Hermit Park master plan and it has caused major delays in getting that project off the ground. We are hoping this will allow our department greater flexibility on future projects.

Chris attended the CDOT public meeting up in Estes Park and represented LCNR for answering questions regarding the Big Thompson recreational draft plan. Approx. 50 people attended.

The Crazy Legs 10 k went off without (much) of a hitch at the Devil’s Backbone Open Space. Chris and the race coordinator were in constant communication the 10 days leading up to the event. The weather finally decided to cooperate for this particular event and 96 runners made the trek.

Cascade Cottages is a private resort within Rocky Mountain National Park (RMNP) and is the largest remaining private inholding within the park. It is named for cascades on Fall River which forms the southern boundary of the property. The property contains approximately 40 acres and is bisected by U.S. Highway 34. The north half of the property is undeveloped. Cascade Cottages is located approximately ½ mile inside the park boundary near the Fall River Entrance to the park. The resort consists of 13 cabins ranging in size from 275 sq. ft. to 710 sq. ft. and a main house containing 1344 sq. ft. All of the structures were constructed in the 1920s and have been in use since that time as a summer resort. The property is zoned T-Tourist in Larimer County, which allows hotels, motels, lodges and resorts as uses permitted by right.

Cascade Cottages is one of only two private resorts that remain within the authorized boundary of the park. It is estimated that more than 800,000 visitors drive past Cascade Cottages each year shortly after they enter the park. This is approximately one quarter of the over 3 million visitors that come to Rocky Mountain National Park annually.

The property belongs to a family-owned Limited Liability Company (LLC). The younger generation is not interested in continuing to operate Cascade Cottages. The older generation, which has been operating the resort, is no longer able to do so as several family members have passed away.

This property is of particular importance to Rocky Mountain National Park because of its location just inside one of the park’s three major entrances. Protecting the visual integrity and natural quality of this property and providing access to Fall River is critical for maintaining a high quality visitor experience.

This property is located within the authorized boundary of Rocky Mountain National Park. No change in legal authority is needed in order to acquire the property.

The family approached Rocky Mountain National Park in 2009, expressing interest in selling the property to the NPS. The NPS paid to have the property appraised. As of February 21, 2012 the appraised value was $2.83 million, a figure confirmed by the NPS Office of Valuation Services at the time. The family believed the property was worth more than the appraised fair market value and they paid for a “mini-appraisal” to examine an alternative method of appraising the property. The results of the “mini-appraisal” put the value of the property at $3.1 million. This value has not been confirmed by the Office of Valuation Services. Total acquisition cost is expected to be $3.6 million.

- RMNP has obtained the assistance of the Trust for Public Land (TPL) and the Rocky Mountain Conservancy (RMC) to acquire the property. If TPL acquires the property they expect to be reimbursed.
- RMNP has submitted this acquisition to the NPS Land Acquisition Ranking System (LARS) in hopes of securing Land and Water Conservation Fund (LWCF) monies to acquire the property. It is RMNP’s No. 1 priority for land acquisition. In order for this project to compete well for LWCF monies, it will be critical for the RMC to raise matching funds. Their fundraising efforts will promote this acquisition as a RMNP Centennial Project.

Current Status:

TPL has obtained an Option Agreement from the landowners that will hold the property until funding can be obtained through fundraising and/or the LWCF. RMC is embarking on a Centennial fundraising campaign designed to raise matching funds that would enhance the chances of obtaining LWCF monies.

If the property can be acquired, RMC has expressed an interest in evaluating some of the structures on the property for potential development as an educational field camp for youth and students. This would complement the park’s efforts to reach diverse and underserved audiences.
